

2021-2022 Scholarship Program for Graduate Students

Guidelines

Program Guidelines & Priorities:

- * Seeking graduate students with a record of leadership and volunteerism in the community in non-school sponsored activities and participation in extracurricular school activities.
- * Applicants must be pursuing a graduate degree in the health and medical sciences with the intention of pursuing that discipline as a career.
- * Applicants must be accepted or enrolled in an accredited graduate degree program in the United States for the Fall 2021/Spring 2022 academic year (enrollment must begin in the Fall).
- * Applicants must have a minimum GPA of 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale).
- * Applicant must be a United States Citizen.
- * Graduate student must apply to and be accepted into a graduate school by July 1, 2021.
- * Applicants must submit two letters of recommendation that are specific to your application to the Freemont Foundation Scholarship Program: professor, counselor, or administrator and one from a community member or officer of an organization in which the applicant is affiliated. Do not submit more than two letters.
- * Applicants must submit the most recent official transcript. This transcript must contain the official school stamp or seal. It may be mailed or emailed. If it is emailed, it must be sent directly to the Freemont Foundation from the school/institution or from the school's official transcript service.
- * The letters of recommendation and transcript may either be included in the application package, sent separately, or emailed.
- * Applications and all supporting documents must be postmarked February 1, 2021 or received by email by February 1, 2021. Late applications and supporting documents will not be accepted.
- * Your name must be on all materials.
- * THE APPLICATION, ESSAY, AND RESUME MUST BE TYPED AND RETURNED BY MAIL.
