JAMES M. & ERMA T. FREEMONT FOUNDATION

2027-2028 Scholarship Program for Graduate Students

GUIDELINES

PURPOSE AND ELIGIBILITY

- The Freemont Foundation seeks graduate students who demonstrate leadership, community volunteerism outside school-sponsored activities, and participation in school extracurricular activities.
- Applicants must pursue a graduate degree in the health or medical sciences with the intention of entering that profession.
- Applicants must be U.S. citizens and have a minimum GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.
- Applicants must be enrolled in, or plan to enroll in, an accredited U.S. graduate degree program for Fall 2027 and intend to maintain full-time status throughout the 2027–2028 academic year.
- Eligible applicants include students currently enrolled in graduate school and students who are applying to graduate school. Applicants who have not yet been accepted may apply, but must receive acceptance into an eligible graduate program by July 1, 2027.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

- Completed and signed application (electronic applicant signature permitted).
- Typed resume (PDF) describing academic honors, awards, memberships, hobbies, extracurricular activities, school-related service, and community volunteer activities outside school.
- Typed 300–350-word essay submitted as a separate PDF.
- Two recommendation letters specific to this scholarship: one from a professor, counselor, or administrator; and one from a community member or officer of an affiliated organization. Handwritten signatures are mandatory.
- Most recent official transcript from the last completed academic term.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

All application materials and supporting documents must be received by February 5, 2027, at 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time. Late or incomplete applications will not be considered.

WHAT TO EMAIL

Email your completed application, resume (PDF), and essay (PDF) to scholarship@freemontfoundation.com.
Suggested email subject: Last Name, First Name - 2027–2028 Graduate Scholarship Application.
The two signed recommendation letters may accompany the application or be emailed separately by their authors. Do not submit more than two letters. Each letter must bear a handwritten signature; digital or electronic signatures are not accepted. Each letter should identify the applicant by full name.

OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPT REQUIREMENTS

- Official transcripts must be transmitted directly by the school or an authorized transcript service. Applicants must NOT email their own transcripts or attach them to their application.
- If an official electronic transcript service is unavailable, a school official may email the transcript directly from an institution-associated email account to scholarship@freemontfoundation.com. Transcripts from generic or personal email accounts will not be accepted.
- If a former institution is closed and academic records cannot be obtained, contact info@freemontfoundation.com for instructions no later than seven working days prior to the deadline to ensure a timely response.

SELECTION, AWARD AND PAYMENT

Finalists may be invited to interview. Award recipients must provide proof of Fall 2027 enrollment, student ID number, and institution information by the deadline stated in their award letter. Scholarship funds will be paid directly to the college or university, not to the recipient.

Award announcement date no later than April 2027. Disbursement date: September 2027.
